Combined Counties League – Premier Division
Epsom & Ewell v. Colliers Wood United on Saturday 8 March 2014 at 3.00pm

Welcome to

Epsom & Ewell v. Old Hamptonians Tuesday 4 March 2014

We welcome you all, our visitors from Old Hamptonians, tonight's match officials and our own regular supporters, to tonight's Southern Combination Cup tie. The outcome of this tie will be settled tonight even if it needs extra time and penalties.

It is the first time we have played our visitors as they play their football outside of the national leagues pyramid in the Amateur Football Combination. We don't very often get the chance to play opponents from the Amateur Leagues. The last occasion being a Surrey Senior Cup tie at Merland Rise against Carshalton FC in November 1995.

Our opponents are currently lying second in their league and what we do know about them is they have already beaten Chertsey Town and Bedfont & Feltham in this competition and they should not be taken lightly.

As for ourselves, we have a busy week with a trip to Hartley Wintney on Thursday night and we all meet back here on Saturday against Colliers Wood. Saturday is also the evening of our fun family quiz at The Amato pub. Tickets are still available from Ian Twyford and we hope it will be a good, fun occasion and a fundraiser for the club.

On fundraising, we still have several match, ball and player sponsorships available. The interest in the Pitch Squares continues to grow, so see pages 16 and 17 and any committee member for details. All money we raise now supports our plans for relocation in the near future and we are all working very hard on that aim at the club at present.

Next Tuesday night's fixture depends on events elsewhere tonight. Should the much delayed league cup tie between Chessington & Hook and Wembley take place, we will visit the winners next Tuesday. If not, we will take on South Park in the eagerly awaited top of the table clash, so whatever happens, it will be an away game for us.

As ever, to keep in touch with the fixture news, follow the clubs official website.

Steve Dyke,
Epsom & Ewell Football Club Programme Team

From the dugout

Good evening everyone and welcome to tonight's game against Old Hamptonians.

As he's got a lot of work on his plate at present, Lyndon wanted to spread the column writing duties around the dugout and it's my turn.

I am writing this following the draw with Molesey last Saturday and we came away from that a little bit disappointed with only getting a point. There's some old football clichés that are very true about the worst time to let in a goal being just after you've scored and just before half-time. On Saturday we did both.

The positives coming out of the performance were the lads battled back in the second half and played with a better tempo and had some very good moves including the equaliser. At the end, the Molesey keeper played a big part in getting them the point with some good saves including a world class save in mid air from Jarmo's header.

We're very pleased to be getting James Cottee back tonight after suspension. With all the weather and postponements it's been a never ending suspension lasting all of February. We've all got plenty of games to play catching up including Thursday down at Hartley Wintney and back here on Saturday v Colliers Wood .

Enjoy the game!

Old Hamptonians AFC History

Founded in 1905, Old Hamptonians has a long history of participating in Amateur Football Leagues in South-West London. The football club is associated with Hampton Grammar School, with players traditionally consisting of former pupils of the school.

Old Hamptonians are affiliated with the Amateur Football Combination League structure, and the 1st XI have been established participants in the AFC Premier Division for the last 20 years. The football club is forged on a philosophy of playing "passing football" and has enjoyed success in recent years under the careful management of Paul Gower and Richard Sexton. The 1st XI have contested 3 Cup Finals during the previous two seasons, in the process winning silverware for the first time in 70 years for the football club.

Amateur Football Combination

The Amateur Football Combination is one of the biggest adult football leagues in Europe, with around 100 clubs and 350 sides playing Saturday afternoons in and around London and the Home Counties from September through to May. Our football is true grassroots football, where players pay to play, on local grounds, with all but the highest divisions regionalised. The Amateur Football Combination comprises more than 1% of 11-a-side adult male football teams in England!

The Amateur Football Combination (AFC) is an adult male league affiliated to the Amateur Football Alliance (AFA), London FA, Middlesex FA and Surrey FA, and was formed in 2002 by the merger of the Old Boys' Football League (1907) and Southern Olympian League (1911) and subsequently merging with the London Financial Football Association (itself comprising the London Banks Football Association, 1900 and the London Insurance Football Association, 1908) in 2006.

In the AFC the emphasis is not only the game, but importantly playing in the Spirit of Football, promoting fair play and respect for all including being sociable and hospitable.

Home clubs are expected to provide hospitality for the opposition and match officials after the game, acknowledging that there should be more to football than simply ninety minutes on the pitch. Everyone knows that they have to go back to work on Monday morning!

The AFC offers players the opportunity to play at a level which suits their ability, providing a competitive but sporting game whether they are in the 1st XI or 9th XI. Our clubs and club members come from all walks - "Old Boys" sides from schools, colleges and universities, local authorities and business houses, as well as social clubs and, of course, Youth Clubs with the league providing an opening for young players to cross the bridge from youth into adult football.

League Match Report

Epsom & Ewell 2-2 Molesey

Combined Counties League Premier Division – Saturday 1 March 2014

Bright spring sunshine greeted this St. David's Day encounter with Molesey, marshalled by Craig Lewington, son of the England Assistant coach Ray Lewington.

The early exchanges saw a number of wasted free kicks before Kieran Campbell made an easy save on 16 minutes from a fast, curling shot. A minute later, Alex McGregor's free kick saw George Murphy head well over the bar. Sam Currie's header on 26 minutes was cleared off the line and Karl Douglin's low, fizzing shot a minute later was spilled by the keeper, who grabbed it at second attempt.

Epsom took the lead on 31 minutes when McGregor's throw in on the right saw Currie cross to unmarked Mark 'Jarmo' Jarman. He rose majestically, unchallenged and his looping header went over the keeper and into the far corner. However, Molesey equalised a minute later when a cross from the left saw Ross Chalke unmarked and he headed home with ease.

McGregor's free kick on 36 minutes was heading for the top left hand corner but the keeper made a great save for a corner which came to zero.

Currie gave the ball away on 39 minutes and the winger crossed in from the left. Matt Baxter's header over Campbell skimmed over the bar and out of play. A minute later, Currie caused panic in the other penalty area. He crossed and the keeper flapped at it before the ball was cleared. Another McGregor free kick sailed over the bar before Molesey took the lead on 46 minutes. Baxter met a cross from the left and, unmarked, headed down and the ball bounced up into the net to give them a half-time lead.

Half-Time: Epsom & Ewell 1-2 Molesey

Campbell made some easy saves early in the second half before Epsom equalised on 62 minutes. Carl Downs rode four heavy challenges down the right and crossed in for Douglin to force the ball home for 2-2. Parity restored. Game on. A few minutes later, there was a great save by Wester Young. Mark Jarman got on the end of a high, hanging cross and headed it down towards the goal, the Molesey keeper came flying out towards him and whilst in mid air, at point blank range, managed to claw at the ball as it was going past him and directed it away from the goal to keep it 2-2.

On 82 minutes, a Molesey defender miskicked a cross over his own bar for a corner. The ball fell to Jarmo who shot over. Epsom wasted some more free kicks and shots after this, before Campbell made a good goal-line save on 88 minutes. The Molesey forwards caused an almighty rumpus challenging him, causing arguments in the stand and producing an Epsom free kick but no yellow cards for Molesey. They had a few late efforts before full-time which ended with a 2-2 draw in front of 81 fans. Epsom remain in fourth place in the league.
